Paradise

Sometimes we look out into the world and wonder: Does it exist? A calm and safe haven? A place where we feel at home? A place where we find the way back to our true selves and feel more freedom than ever before.

Where is this paradise where we can feel, smell, experience, and enjoy nature? Where we can laugh, awaken the child within us, and create unforgettable memories together?

We'll reveal the secret and tell you where you can find it: Paradise is right here.

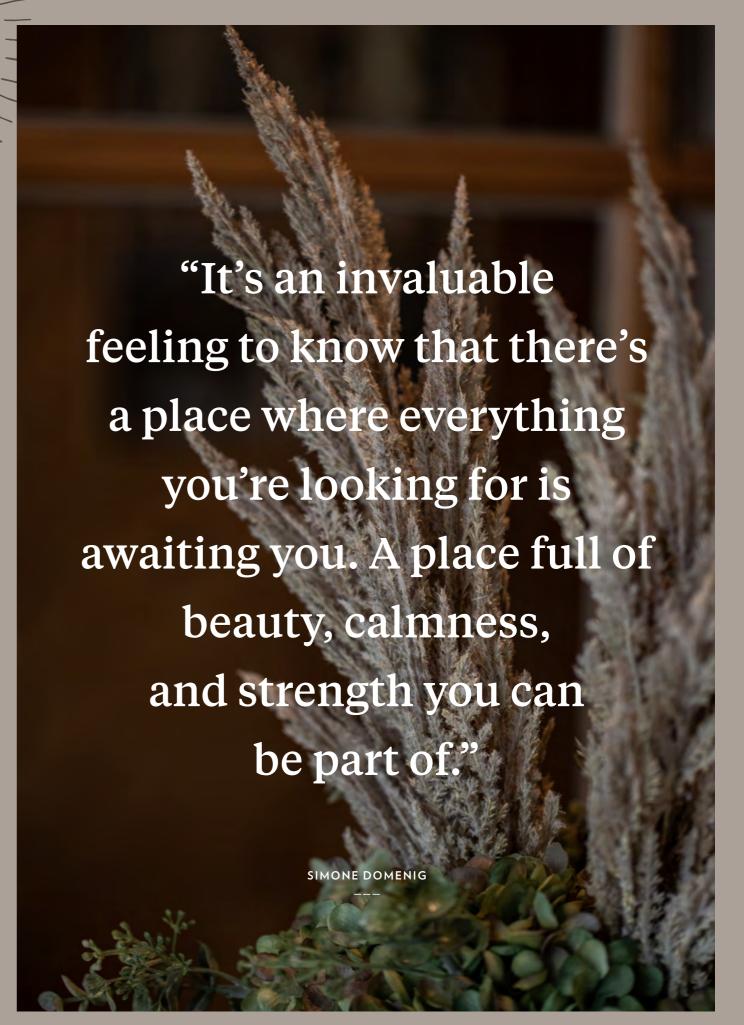

1,436 metres above sea level. At the foot of serene mountains - protected by the alpine abundance. This is such an exceptional place - each and every detail, room, service, and every encounter will have a heartfelt effect on you.

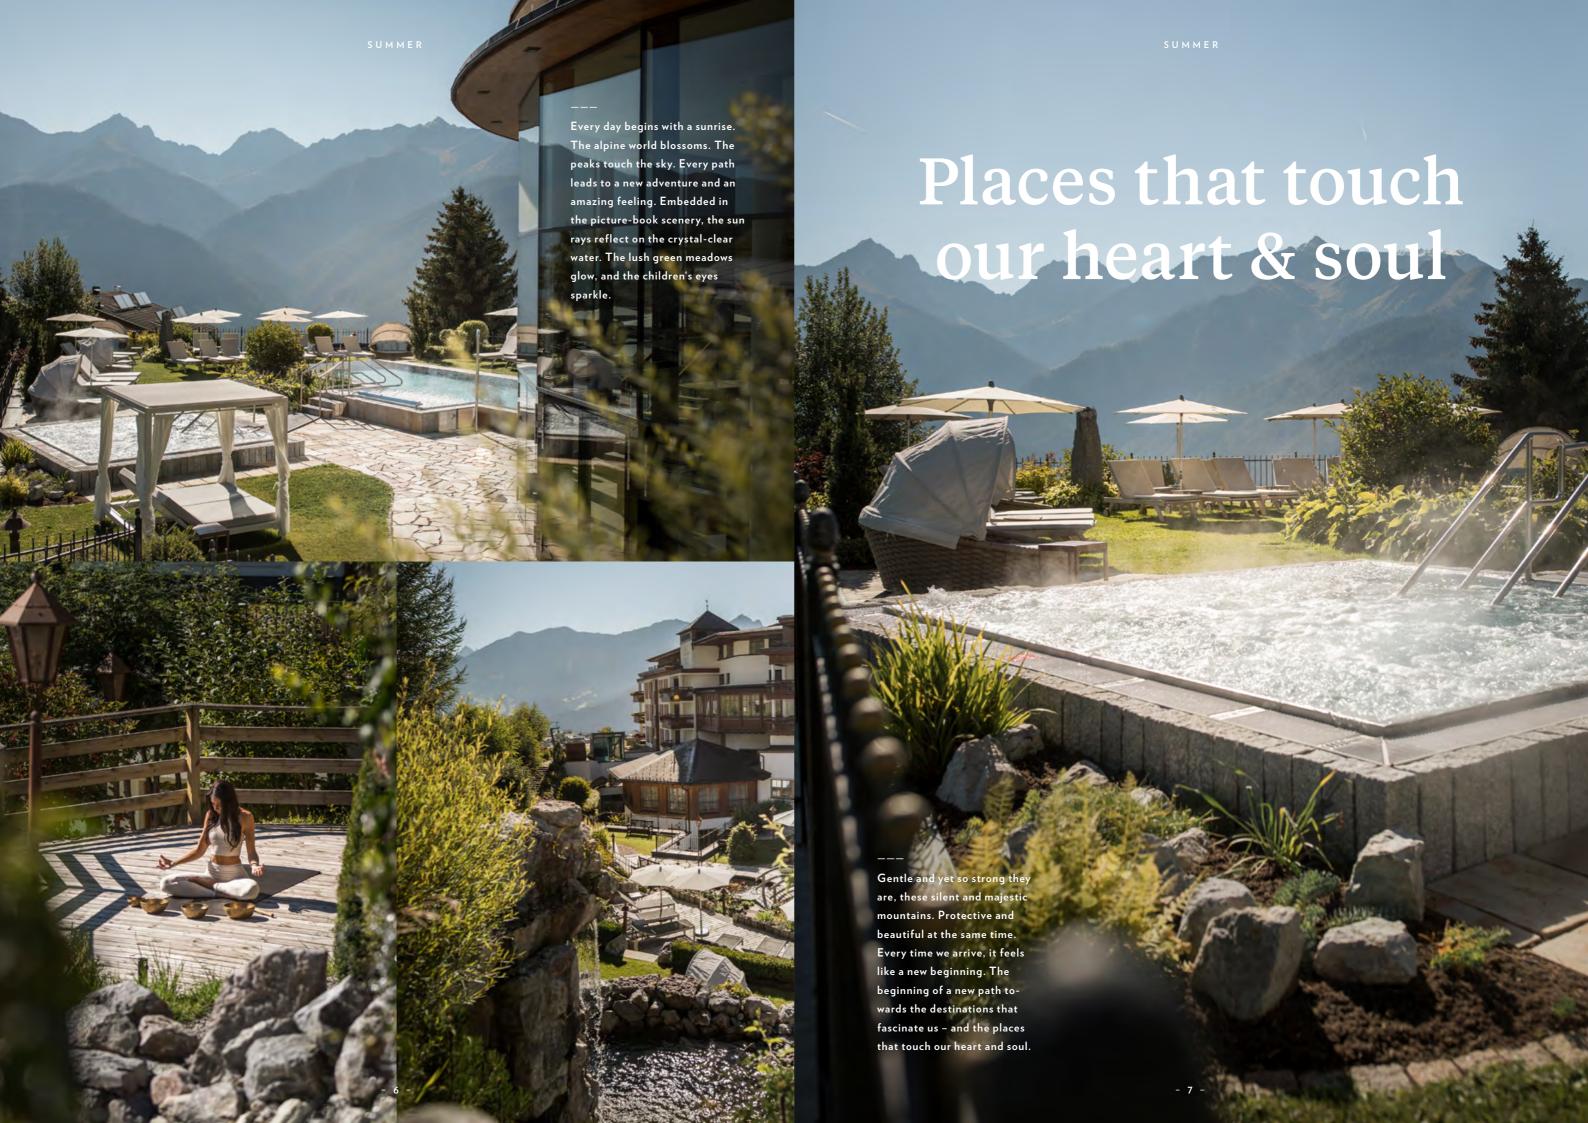

Your Schlosshotel experience will be unique and unforgettable.

It's a pleasure and an honour to create rooms full of beauty, calmness, and strength – and to fill them with our heart and harmony especially for you.

Yours, Simone Domenia

The art of saying "welcome"

When the doors of Schlosshotel Fiss open, all of your senses will unfold: Because design and detail interact in an exciting and simultaneously wonderfully grounding manner. The design and details are contemporary and timeless as well as innovative and calming – all at once. They are classic and at the same time in a class for themselves.

Primarily our highly appreciated regular guests notice and experience how the SHF interior changes and evolves over time. The young managing director Simone Domenig has put her heart and soul into the new branding, the SHF tableware collection, and the Beef Club. "For me, style is so much more than design or a trend. It's an expression of personality. That's why every detail is so important to me," she explains.

Observing global trends, attending the important trade fairs, and working with talented people creates a wealth of ideas. Focussing these ideas on the essentials and finding exactly the pieces that embody the consistency and harmony of Schlosshotel Fiss, that's the real art.

"Every combination has to create an all-round good feeling. Coherence and beauty are the goal. Only then is it right for our Schlosshotel," says Simone Domenig. With each and every selection, she combines both: solid quality and durability as well as the lightness of modern luxury.

Craftsmanship plays an important role: "We work together with manufacturers who give every piece of furniture, every fabric, and every accessory the attention it needs to standout as a unique piece. You can feel the subtle difference that ultimately makes the difference."

Thus, an aura of something extraordinary was achieved in the newly designed SHF lobby, an atmosphere that expresses a heartfelt "welcome" in the most beautiful way. With carpets by Stepevi, seating and tables by Minotti, and furnishing by interior designer Ernst Summer, which embody not only a unique feeling of generous cordiality here at the Schlosshotel, but also of being appreciated as a human being, as a fine spirit, and as a connoisseur:

"After all, every design, every fabric, simply everything is an invitation to our guests to feel special and at home."

Ernst Summer. Interior designer.

Mr Summer, you have been focussing your eye for detail on the Schlosshotel Fiss and have been highlighting the SHF language of art through your special interior design for more than a decade now. How did your collaboration with Schlosshotel Fiss start?

At the beginning of my "Schlosshotel story" there was Hermi Artner, who was responsible for interior design here at the Schlosshotel for many years. She invited me to assist her and to meet Bernadette Domeniq. That's how I was introduced to this special hotel, where I now have the pleasure to enjoy a beautiful and trusting collaboration with Simone Domenig. This kind of appreciation, this openness, and this high awareness for quality is something I can hardly find anywhere else.

Which hotel characteristics are expressed through the interior design?

The Schlosshotel Fiss is a pleasant, attentive, and exclusive my creativity. hotel, which at the same time perfectly fits in to the landscape and alpine world around it. Each and every detail is carefully selected and put in its place.

Where do you find your inspiration?

On holiday, at trade fairs in Frankfurt, Munich, and Paris as well as in spontaneous "encounters". There's an exciting story behing the large new golden pots in the hallways. When I saw them, I instantly knew: This perfect shade of gold belongs into the Schlosshotel.

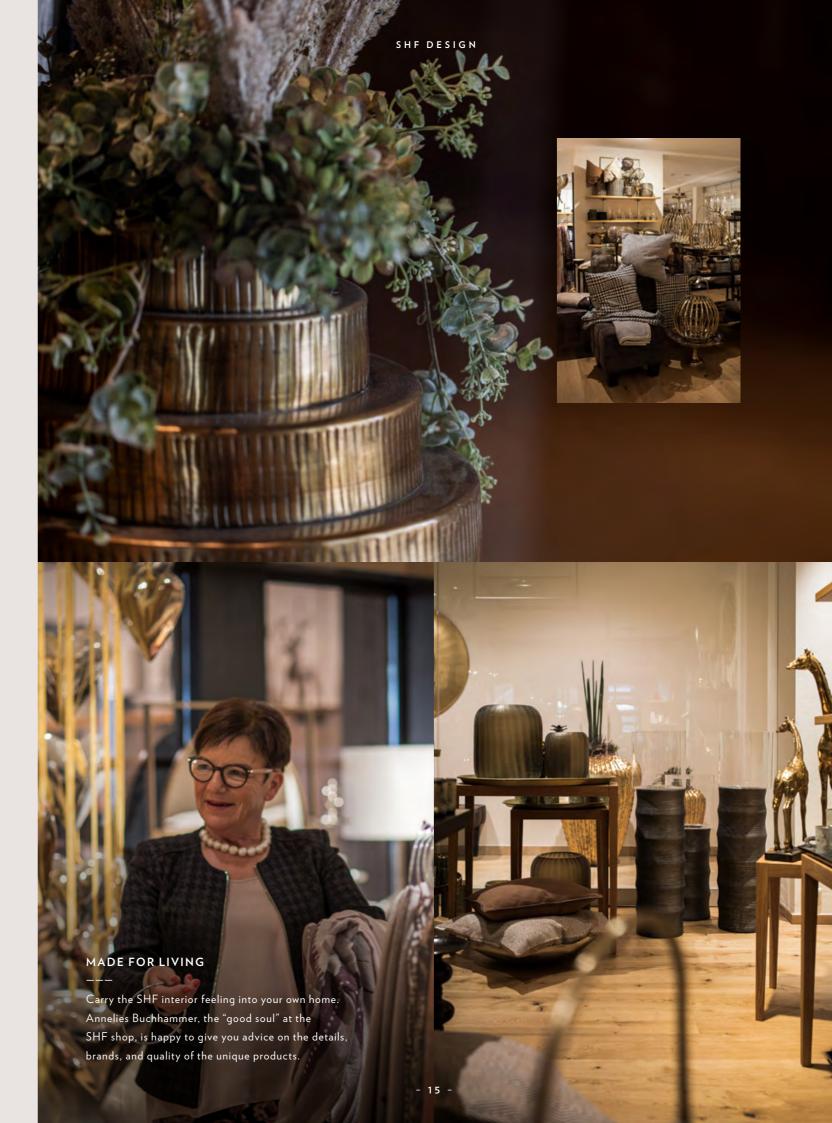

As they were already out of stock though, I decided to order an entire container of them without hesitation and without speaking to Simone Domenig about it beforehand. When Simone Domenig then told me that she wanted to renew the hallway decorations, the pots were ready to take their place. It's an amazing feeling for me when a puzzle piece finds it perfect spot.

What's the most important criterion in the SHF interior

The quality. I am allowed to work with very special gold and metal varnishing, high-quality products, and I can choose from the newest collections and refine my basic ideas directly at the hotel. I always arrive with a basic concept, but I never plan anything down to the last detail, because I want the interior design to evolve right here in the rooms of the hotel and fall into place. The full appreciation and trust I receive, allows me to unfold and expand Togetherness makes gastronomy thrive.

Togetherness of dear people who are passionate about giving their best, knowing that they can still grow – even if they have already reached their initial goal, because they laugh together, live together, and love what they do.

It feels good.

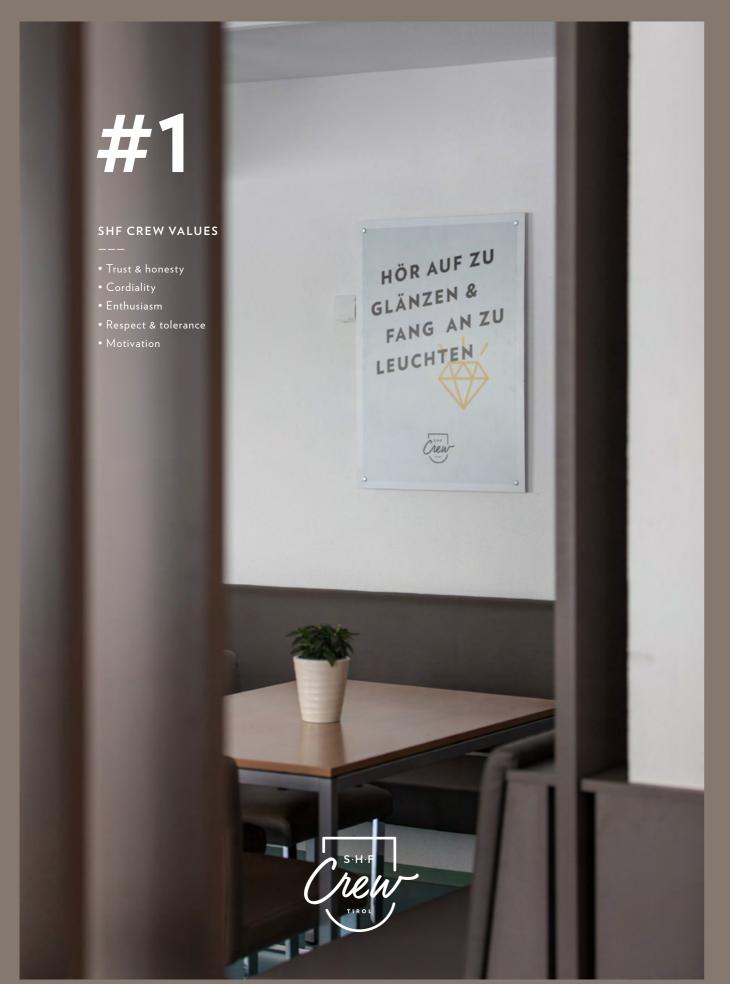

Togetherness makes gastronomy thrive. It's also good to have a chat, experience trust and encouragement for everyone. Now and then, enjoy a glass of wine together – at just the right temperature from the perfect wine glass.

At Schlosshotel Fiss, we provide space for this precious togetherness: the SHF crew kitchen. It's the central meeting point that's always open to everyone – and a place where the SHF crew chef prepares fresh, healthy, and varied food every day especially for the SHF crew.

It's not just a place to enjoy delicious food together, but also a place to motivate each other and wish each other a great day.

#5

Ms Resch, you're thoughtful and at the same time very clear nature enhances the SHF human resources management team. As the SHF reservation manager, you're now also responsible for the strategic decisions and developments for this important department. What's particularly close to your heart in terms of your management work?

Our goal is to fill every position in the SHF crew with the ideal person, to maintain direct contact with our employees, and to support the department managers in carrying forward our values.

Where do you find the ideal SHF crew members?

The recruiting process is undergoing a strong shift. The classic job advertisement is not as effective anymore, and skilled workers are scarce. That's why we have built up professional SHF crew channels with our own corporate design, our own website, and our own social media pages. We present the SHF crew life and the benefits we offer on these channels to reach potential employees.

How does the employment and the integration of new members into the SHF crew work?

After a successful interview, we draw up the contracts and then the new crew member can move in to one of the SHF crew homes. The SHF academy then explains all the important details so that the new crew member is well prepared. In most cases, all this happens before the first guests arrive. The opening day is the start button for everyone.

The Schlosshotel is more than just a place of employment. It's a place where the SHF crew can settle down and feel at home.

Yes, definitely. It's a family-run hotel and our crew members are the beating heart of the hotel. The appreciation of people is the main focus. You can experience that in the everyday teamwork, in the respectful togetherness, and of course in the services offered: Especially in the tastefully designed apartments of the SHF home, which also offer enough space for families, or in the studios, single and double rooms in the SHF crew homes. Many SHF crew members have found their home here and now live in Fiss all year round.

What benefits are offered to the SHF crew members?

A few examples include, the delicious staff buffet, the new SHF crew kitchen, the highest quality work utensils, spa evenings, and discounts at the hotel and in the Serfaus-Fiss-Ladis region. The opportunity to adapt working hours to the wishes and needs of our employees is becoming increasingly important. Thus, we offer different working time models at Schlosshotel Fiss: Many of the SHF crew members work a fiveday week. Kitchen, service, wellness, and reception staff, for example, work five and a half days per week. Part-time jobs are also

What do you expect from the SHF crew members?

As a 5-star hotel, we are the ideal workplace for young, motivated, and well-trained employees. Fortunately, the gourmet and Falstaff awards for the cuisine, the high level of wine knowledge, the sophisticated service, the specialised SHF spa, the clearly structured administration, and also the high-quality features attract many professionals to our hotel. When competence, commitment, and cordiality go hand in hand, the performance is right.

The motto is #workhappy #playhappy how do you successfully combine professional success and personal development?

Ideally, by establishing one's own living space and centre of life here in the "paradise for families and connoisseurs", and by becoming an important and valuable part of the SHF crew.

What makes the SHF academy stand out?

The SHF academy is in the process of development, and each season we focus on a different area which offers added value and inspiration.

Are there any current challenges you are

The crisis due to Covid-19 has hit the hotel and catering industry as well as gastronomy with full force. We will do everything we can to meet the new challenges of our industry with experience, consistency, and know-

What's the most important next step for you now?

We have many plans that we are successively implementing. However, I think it's essential that the young talents are made aware of the versatile, attractive, and beautiful careers in gastronomy, because we not only give a lot, but also get a lot in return: from the other SHF crew members and, of course, form the many friendly and appreciative guests.

Sweet Dreams

Sweet temptation and tantalising curiosity.

You have to taste them all: the fresh macarons,
the assorted chocolates, the fine tartlets, cakes, and creative desserts – all homemade by Sophie Winkler and Sabrina Brennsteiner.

SHF CUISINE

They run the SHF patisserie with creativity and passion, producing surprising details, complex creations, and individual interpretations of popular classics. This way, they make sure the SHF patisserie is not only an amazing enrichment for SHF cuisine, but also a true work of art.

Magnificent

"ONE THING IS CLEAR:

Enthusiasm only begins once the expected is surpassed. But no matter how exclusive an offer is, the most important ingredient is always appreciation. Appreciation for the resources, the quality, the energy, and the attention that goes into a dish and a menu from sowing to harvesting, processing to preparing. Because we only really enjoy the things we consciously enjoy," explains Mathias Seidel, SHF chef de cuisine.

THE GUIDING PHILOSOPHY

PHILOSOP

Each and every day he lives this philosophy with his entire SHF kitchen crew. His principles are applied not only at the SHF Beef Club gourmet restaurant and at his chef's table but also at the SHF luxury board. "With up to 40 cooks in the kitchen, everything is freshly prepared from scratch every day. Both the cold and the hot dishes, the breakfast, and the afternoon buffet as well as the dinner. For us, our credo is always: Our world-class dishes are homemade, handmade, and from the best suppliers."

___

The culinary and above all the high quality offered as well as the per capita value of the SHF luxury board go far beyond the classic level of a 5-star hotel. "As a result of the fresh and in-house preparation, the craftsmanship, and sophisticated techniques we employ, we produce a depth of detail and clarity that create great pleasure," Mathias Seidel explains.

LIFTED

"Tandem flying and paragliding are so much more than just sports. Every time you fly, you feel like you are coming alive deep inside," says Roland Patsch as he places his large rucksack on the floor next to him in the Schönjochbahn gondola. The gondola ascends at a constant speed and quickly reaches the final station at 2,400 metres above sea level, from where we will start our adventure today. "When I see the guests flight. A panoramic tandem flight from at the meeting point for the first time, I can already feel this very special kind of anticipation that only exists with flying. For many, flying is simply the greatest dream in life – and then this dream comes true."

The Tyrolean paragliding and tandem pilot speaks from experience: Roland Patsch has conducted more than 11,000 flights in the last 30 years, and this desire that gripped him at the age of twelve has never left him.

But is this adventure really for everyone? "If you don't mind being on a chairlift, you can also try a tandem Fisser Schönjoch to the village takes about 20 minutes, depending on the weather conditions. We'll be in the air for about 35 minutes before reaching Ried. It's a tremendously beautiful experience to fly over the plateau, gazing over the hundreds of mountain peaks from the Zugspitze all the way to Italy and Switzerland, and just to be 'up there in the air' for once."

And it really is an unforgettable feeling: As we get ready to take off (with a rather fluttery heart and butterflies in our stomachs) at 2,436 metres above sea level, and after a strong run-up, the autumn sky lifts us up, and we can feel the sparks of freedom and joy in each and every part of our body.

Here and now

THE ART OF HEALING

For over five thousand years, the experience, wisdom, and dedication of countless masters have been poured into the traditional Indian art of Ayurveda – creating a healing practice that returns us to a deeper inner balance.

As a well-founded system of diagnosis and treatment, Ayurveda is "the science of a long and healthy life" which connects body, mind, soul and the five Panchamahabhutas (elements) – on the basis of which the three doshas of Vata, Pitta, and Kapha are described. If these three doshas are in a balanced relationship, we enjoy health and spiritual abundance in the Prakriti state.

The SHF Ayurvedic massages are individually designed according to your dosha type and are a wonderful way to bring your own natural disposition into harmony, to balance energies, and to find lasting relaxation.

However, it is not only through massages and the right choice of oils that the effectiveness of Ayurveda can have a healing influence on your life. Ayurveda therapist Agnes Surdi-Papocsi will introduce you to this science during SHF Ayurveda workshops, help you recognise your dosha type, and give practical tips for a more balanced life in full harmony.

The little explorers will dive deep into the forest. The path leads past unusual animals, amazing findings, and tricky questions. It then takes the explorers to a mysterious tree house ... the explorer's house. Here they not only learn a lot about the alpine world, but also get to experience research in a whole new and joyful way.

- In total 2 hours walking time (1 hour to the start and then about 1 hour from the start to the end)
- 170 metres of altitude difference (the path runs along the forest just above Ladis)
- Start: follow the road from Schlosshotel Fiss towards the parking area of the cable car station, take the Sägegasse path and then follow the signs to the Falterjöchl

- Important: good footwear required & not suitable for prams or pushchairs
